

Project Inception Team and Acknowledgements

Special thanks to the following key project stakeholders.

Steering committee

Griffith University School of Allied Health Sciences:

- Deputy Head School of Allied Health Sciences: A/Prof Andrea Bialocerkowski
- Discipline Lead Physiotherapy: A/Prof Liisa Laakso
- Discipline Lead Speech Pathology: A/Prof Libby Cardell
- Discipline Lead of Occupational Therapy: Prof Matthew Molineux
- Program Director Exercise Physiology: Dr Surendran Sabapathy

University Partners

- James Cook University - Clinical Education Coordinator: Ms Aya Pellatt
- Central Queensland University - Program Lead (Occupational Therapy): Prof Monica Moran – and Deputy Dean for Learning and Teaching - Prof Megan Dalton
- Bond University– Clinical Education Coordinator: Ms Nikki Milne
- Australian Catholic University– Clinical Education Coordinator: Mr Paul Miller

Queensland Health:

- Central Queensland Hospital and Health Service– Director: Ms Kerrie-Anne Frakes
- Queensland Health - Allied Health Professions' Office of Queensland – Chief Allied Health Officer: Ms Julie Hulcombe
- Queensland Health – Child and Youth Mental Health Service – Director Speech Pathology: Ms Narelle Anger

Private Sector:

- Allied Connect– Practice Principal : Mr Chris Turner

National Associations: (association first)

- Indigenous Allied Health Australia -- Chief Executive Officer: Mr Craig Dukes
- Services for Australian Rural and Remote Allied Health (SARRAH) - Manager: Ms Shelagh Lowe

Project sponsors (Griffith University):

Griffith University

- Deputy Head School of Allied Health Sciences - A/Prof Andrea Bialocerkowski
- Discipline Lead Physiotherapy - A/Prof Liisa Laakso

Project team:

- Project Manager: Ms Amanda Croker
- Exercise Physiology representative: Mr Nathan Reeves
- Occupational Therapy representative: Ms Angela Hawkes
- Physiotherapy representative: Julie Gauchwin
- Speech Pathology representatives: Dr Sharon Crosbie and Dr Alison Holm